@ POPE JOHN PAUL II CATHOLIC CENTRE (WUSE 2, ABUJA)

28-30 SEPT 2021

SOCIETY OF BIBLICAL SCHOLARS—SBS

Extended Final Deadline: 20 August 2021

SBS 2021: African biblical scholars, doctoral students in biblical studies, lecturers/scholars in biblical studies, and theological educators are invited to attend SBS conf., by submitting a paper/abstract or panel proposal/summary on a topic based on the CLS below. In this Conf, presenters must choose a program format for their presentation (e.g., learning cohort, seminar ...) and may use their research papers or teaching specialty (e.g. OT/LXX in NT; OT/Historiography; ANE/Archeology; BT/OTT; Jesus and Judaism; BT/NTT; Salvation in Early Judaism and Christianity; Jewish Apocalyptic Orientation in Early Christianity) to name and start a 'study group' and invite interested persons to join. Proposed groups or presentations must also be fitted into one or more of the CLS segments below.

In addition to filling the 2021 SBS Registration Form (download or request), please submit the following:

- A. Proposal to present a paper or form a group discussion; topic and summary/vital points (= keywords): 300-400 words
- B. Program format (e.g. cohort, seminar) and conf learning session (CLS) for your presentation or discussion
- C. Full contact details for presenter or group members (email address, WhatsApp and phone no)
- D. Brief academic/institutional and organizational/professional profile.

OT/related submissions should be emailed to SBS Liaison: Dr. Hassan Musa (PhD, Stellenbosch) @ ETSK Nigeria: musahass735@gmail.com; hokma.sbs@gmail.com; cc: hokmahouse.conf.2000@gmail.com

NT/related submissions should be emailed to SBS Liaison: Sr Dr Gesila Uzukwu (PhD, Leuven) @Major Seminary of St Paul, Abuja : gesynneka@yahoo.co.uk; hokma.sbs@gmail.com; cc: hokmahouse.conf.2000@gmail.com

Non-members: limited space is reserved for non-members at this year's SBS conf; registration is required. Non-members may present one paper or participate in one discussion forum.

SBS members: Membership requirement applies for 2021 SBS Conf. Please, pay your current membership dues before the registration deadline, in order to participate fully. New members are welcome--please, download the membership form (<http://hokmahouse.org/downloads/>) or email your request to us.
